IMPORTANT RISK WARNINGS / FUND INFORMATION FOR HONG KONG INVESTORS

- With effect from 5 March 2018, Hang Seng H-Share Index ETF is renamed as Hang Seng China Enterprises Index ETF.
- Hang Seng China Enterprises Index ETF (the "HSCEI ETF") is an index-tracking fund which aims to match, before expenses, as closely as practicable the performance of the Hang Seng China Enterprises Index (the "Index"). The HSCEI ETF invests primarily in the constituent stocks of the Index.
- The HSCEI ETF is different from a typical unit trust as it is listed on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, and like other listed stocks, carry similar risks such as liquidity risk and risk of trading suspension. The market price per Unit could be significantly higher or lower than its Net Asset Value per Unit due to market demand and supply, liquidity and scale of trading spread in the secondary market and will fluctuate during the trading day.
- The HSCEI ETF is subject to tracking error risk, passive investment risk, risk of concentration of investments in a single market/several constituent stocks of the Index and risks associated with investments in mainland China (an emerging market).
- The HSCEI ETF is also subject to dual counter risk, RMB currency and conversion risks, reliance on market maker risk and reliance on the same group risk.
- The Manager may, at its discretion, pay dividend out of capital. The Manager may also, at its discretion, pay dividend out of gross income while all or part of the fees and expenses of the HSCEI ETF are charged to/paid out of the capital of the HSCEI ETF, resulting in an increase in distributable income for the payment of dividends by the HSCEI ETF and therefore, the HSCEI ETF may effectively pay dividend out of capital. Payment of dividends out of capital or effectively out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Any distributions involving payment of dividends out of the capital of the HSCEI ETF or effectively out of the capital of the HSCEI ETF may result in an immediate reduction of the Net Asset Value per Unit of the HSCEI ETF.
- Investment involves risks and investors may lose substantial part of their investment in the HSCEI ETF. Investors should not only base on this factsheet alone to make investment decisions, but should read the HSCEI ETF's offering documents (including the full text of the risk factors stated therein) in detail.
